

Casual examination is enough to disclose that this letter does not, in fact, even pretend to reply to the questions I raised having to do with any of the medical evidence and its suppression.

Compare, perhaps, with letters, in any event, make specific reference to other items.